

Partnership for Narragansett Bay Monitoring Program Inventory Data

Add New Record

Close
Access

Complete one record for every program:

(your data are automatically saved by Access)

Mandatory fields are written in red

Name of Monitoring Program

Cooperative Agricultural Pest Survey (CAPS)

Sponsoring Agency or Institution

USDA/APHIS

Program Purpose

Detect introduced or exotic invasive species-plants,insects,inverts,pathogens,etc.

Variables Measured Methods Used

Exotic species identified via trapping and visual surveys

Sampling Interval

Monitoring frequency
depends on species

Program Start and Finish

1982-on-going

Locations of Monitoring Sites

Statewide, County basis

QA/QC Used to Ensure Data Accuracy

no

Format of Data

Digital Spreadsheet

Access and Availability of Data

NAPIS database, public access

Program Website URL

www.ceris.purdue.edu/napis/

CONTACT INFORMATION

Name

Lisa Tewksbury

Institution

URI-Plant Sciences

Address 1

6 Greenhouse Road

E-Mail

lisat@uri.edu

Address 2

Telephone

(401) 874-2750

City

Kingston

State

RI

Zip

02881

Fax

(401) 874-2494

Notes and Misc Comments

This monitoring program is designed to detect invasive, non-indigenos species throughout the state. Sample design is dependant on specific species of concern and is linked to the national PPQ program that detemines which surveys should be conducted.